

As you admire the beauty of the Spring season that surrounds you, meditate on the lesson Mother Nature is teaching us. Just like the flowers and the butterflies, we are all going through a transformation. Your brilliance shines through every stage of change. Be patient as you grow.

JACQUIE AICHE