

Add some color to your time at home. Rainbows are a symbol of hope and light. They are a promise of good things to come... Join us in sending love to the healthcare workers who are spending their time healing the world. Once you've colored in your masterpiece, hang it in your window to show your support for those on the frontlines.

JACQUIE AICHE