

Leo is known to be the leader of the tribe. They radiate confidence, chasing a life full of energy and possibility. No dream is too big for this sign, and no adventure is too wild. Ruled by the lion, they have a fierce heart that is just as passionate as it is protective.

Their electric energy inspires their tribe to shine as bright as the diamonds that adorn them. With a strong sense of ambition, Leo isn't afraid to chase after the desires of their heart. The power of the sun lights them up as they manifest the magic of the Universe. As a fire sign, they're always seeking new experiences to fuel their spirit. Better keep up lover, Leo is a sign that will never be tamed...

JACQUIE AICHE